

The Constitution Reflection Award

Information Sheet and References List

The Constitution Reflection Award challenges KU students to comment on the enduring importance of the United States Constitution and its presence in our everyday lives. Each year, students will be invited to submit an audio-visual reflection in response to a given prompt. Any undergraduate student who has enrolled in a History course during the academic year is invited to apply. The winner will be awarded $500 and their submission will be featured on the Department of History website.

2022-2023 Prompt: Reflect on the role of amendments to the U.S. Constitution in expanding or restricting individual rights

Submissions will be evaluated according to how well they: address the given prompt; acknowledge historical context or change over time; demonstrate nuance or complexity of thinking; employ a varied and relevant References List of at least four sources; convey information in a creative or compelling way.

Eligibility: Any KU undergraduate student enrolled in a history course during the academic year (Fall 2022-Spring 2023) of the award period.

Submission Requirements:

- 3-4 minute video or audio/video presentation addressing the prompt
- MP4, MOV., AVI., WMV
- Information sheet and Reference List

Submissions will be accepted December 1, 2022 through April 10, 2023. Award will be announced in May 2023.

For questions regarding the award or the submission process, contact Amanda Contreras at acon@ku.edu.
